Chis is a fixture on both the local and national scene. His plays acoustic rock that is all real-life - sincere, direct, and with a Rock n' Roll edge that reflects our collective selves back at us. Chris has opened for such acts as Jakob Dylan, Southside Johnny, and many other national artists. He has also been featured in several televised music programs such as "Music is Art: Live at the Center" and is in rotation at several stations across the U.S. and Canada.

NOA BURSIE

Singer/Songwriter Noa Bursie's music is infused with supple wit and astute, poetic lyricism. The material flow deftly from history and social commentary to politics, the media, and relationships. Whether it's the alternate guitar tunings, smoothly sensuous vocals, edgy wails, or incisive lyrics, this artist has the ability to work the audience up into a dancing sweat as easily as hypnotize them into pin-drop silence with a single phrase.

Lisa Rose

Buffalo singer songwriter Lisa Rose entered the music scene in 2005 after meeting her husband Mike Flash, who taught her guitar lessons. Unable to let go of her emotional baggage, Lisa connected with her innermost feelings to write a collection of pop songs in which relationships are a recurring theme. Having been a Madonna wannabe in the 1980's, she adopts a singing style similar to Madonna. Mike provides acoustic guitar accompaniment with tasty melodic phrasing. Samples from Lisa's forthcoming release "Sounds from My Closet: Volume I" are available at http://www.lisarosemusic.com.
